"changing the way you think"

"Business environments are challenging organisations to become increasingly collaborative and creative. BBPA has specifically identified training courses which provide key learning opportunities to enhance and optimise human potential. Participants of the trainings will access traditional & professional programmes, but become integrated in an innovative solutions orientated environment."

Bulgaria's Business Professionals Academy (BBPA)

180 Minutes to Change the Way you think!

BBPA will begin with a series of specific short courses, these will be driven by individual or organisational need.

Professionals working across all sectors of business require an array of skills and competencies, which make them, stand above the rest. Building capacity and broad skills of individuals will improve confidence and strategic strength within the organisation to enable it to be competitive and adaptive to market changes

"180m Workshops", lead to fully validated programmes. By working closely with IBTA - The International Business Training Association, we will address key principals:

- Maintaining a common body of knowledge for business professionals
- Providing global leadership in soft-skills for business professionals
- Certifying business professionals in international standards
- Administering training and certification examinations
- Ensuring credentials are maintained and relevant through continuing education policies

The International Business Training Association, IBTA is a knowledge-centered organization committed to the training and certifying of business professionals to international standards. All candidates are given the opportunity to be independently assessed and validated.

"180 Minutes" Workshop:

- Customer Care
- Business Etiquette
- Business Management Challenges
- Finance for Project Managers
- Risk Management – "tell-tale signs"
- Business Communication
- 50 Ideas to Delivery Successful Projects
- Leadership
